

Don has a M.A. degree in counseling psychology from Pacifica Graduate Institute in Santa Barbara, CA . Don has worked in a variety of settings including Kaiser Permanente's Addiction Medicine department, the Los Angeles Gay and Lesbian Center, and Tarzana Treatment Centers. He specializes in working with individuals, couples, and young adults who are dealing with issues of substance abuse and dependency, anxiety, depression, mid-life issues, sexual identity issues, men's issues, spirituality and HIV/AIDS.

Email Don

Return to IPG Website/Staff Page