

Gil has an Master's degree in Social Work from California State University, Long Beach. He specializes in working with children, adolescents and families. He has worked with Orange County Mental Health, working with severely emotionally disturbed children and chronically mentally ill adults. Gil has been in clinical practice since 1993.

Email Gil

Return to IPG Website/Staff Page