

Linda has an M.A. degree in psychology from California State University , Long Beach and has been a licensed Marriage and Family Therapist since 1991. She has experience in a variety of clinical settings treating adults, families, and teens, including Community Service Programs, Inc. and Healthcare Agency in Orange County. Linda specializes in working with individuals and families in transition, couples, parenting concerns, substance abuse/recovery, and lesbian/gay issues.

Email Linda

Return to IPG Website/Staff Page