

Marsalee received her Master's degree in Social Work from Cal State University, Long Beach in 1999. Prior to IPG, she worked for the Rehabilitation Institute of Southern California as the Program Director for the Adult Day Health Care program. Marsalee has worked with the elderly, severely mentally ill, head trauma survivors (including stroke and traumatic brain injury/TBI), those with developmental disabilities and caregivers. Prior to her graduate studies, Marsalee worked with the chronically mentally ill in Santa Barbara at the Phoenix House. She specializes in adult, adolescent and family therapy.

Email Marsalee

Return to IPG Website/Staff Page