

Michael has a Master's degree in Social Work from California State University, Long Beach. Michael works with adolescents, adults, couples, families and the GLBQ community. Michael has been in clinical practice since 1995 focusing on adults, children and adolescents dealing with depression and anxiety, HIV/AIDS, ADHD, grief and loss, sexual identity, substance abuse, and adoption/foster care issues.

Email Michael

Return to IPG Website/Staff Page