

Nicole has an M.A. degree in marital and family therapy from Phillips Graduate Institute. She has previously worked as an elementary school counselor and at the Los Angeles Gay and Lesbian Center, Miracle Mile Community Practice, Journey Counseling Services and in private practice. Nicole is a certified PAIRS educator and a certified PREPARE/ENRICH counselor. She specializes in couples' therapy, including pre-marital and pre-commitment counseling and skills-based training for couples. Nicole frequently conducts on-site corporate training and employee seminars on a variety of topics, including stress management, working with difficult people and providing customer service.

Email Nicole

Return to IPG Website/Staff Page