

Tamera is a graduate of USC and has worked in the psychiatric/behavioral medicine industry for 20 years. She has worked for both private and public sector agencies. She's managed marketing and development for private psychiatric inpatient and outpatient programs and been involved in direct patient care, intake services, emergency evaluations, and developing community partnerships for the mentally ill and their families. She has extensive experience within the managed behavioral healthcare system administering mental health contracts for physician's associations.

Email Tamera

Return to IPG Website/Staff Page