

Tim has an M.A. degree in clinical psychology from Pepperdine University. He has counseled in private practice since 1993 and most recently was the director for a campus and community counseling services program that served over 90 Orange County schools. Tim's private practice specialty is treatment of clients suffering from anxiety and depression triggered by chronic physical illness.

Email Tim

Return to IPG Website/Staff Page